About the Institution

Aggarwal College Ballabgarh, established in 1971 is accredited A Grade (CGPA 3.40) by NAAC and has been awarded College with Potential for Excellence (CPE) Status by UGC, New Delhi. It is a co-educational post graduate institution running 12 graduate and 08 post graduate courses. Besides, six add-on courses and two vocational courses sponsored by University Grants Commission are also run to equip students with market oriented innovative skills. It is catering to the needs of more than 4500 students.

About the Seminar

In the changing global scenario and demographic, it is imperative that the quality in tertiary education should be nurtured and sustained so that outcome is productive and effective. The college Academic Audit provides an opportunity for a regular strategic overview of colleges learning and teaching activities. There will be invited talks by experts to make stakeholders aware of such processes that can sustain quality teaching and learning. It is very essential on the part of leadership both at managerial and academic level that academic audit should be regularly done to ensure accountability, transparency and effectiveness. Academic Audit is an endeavour to improve functional efficiency of the HEIs and promote accountability among the Teaching Staff. Through this seminar stakeholders will understand that this self assessment exercise will go a long way in imparting value oriented quality education so that our students are confident of their skill, problem solver, and creative thinker and innovative.

Sub Themes

- Academic and Administrative Audit: Need and Processes
- Academic and Administrative Audit and Quality Sustenance
- Role of Leadership in Academic Audit
- Total Quality Management in Higher Education through Academic Audit
- Strategies for Effective Academic Audit in Higher Education Institutions in India
- Internal and External Academic Audit practices in Higher Education Institutions in India
- Learning from Audit

Expected Outcome

The two day deliberation by academic peers and educational experts will critically review the need, process and the benefits of academic and administrative audits in institutions of higher learning where demands for quality education is a direct need for making it relevant and effective. Institutions which have not yet taken up this venture of continuous self assessment will find that academic audit goes a long way in aligning teaching and learning as per the market requirements. The leadership in higher education will make to understand that it is imperative to assess the strength and weaknesses of departments and administrative units so that there are continuous and consistent efforts for improving teaching, learning and evaluation, student support and progression. The seminar will review the lessons learnt from the views and experiences shared by academic peers and it will also come out with a booklet showing guidelines for the designing, implementation and evaluation of academic and administrative audit processes.
